One population's average path through a trial

One example per group, the one nearest its group's median; 128 neurons x 100 trials. 150 points, 10 ms apart, from stimulus onset (black dot). Three of the ten axes measured.